Characteristics of the unit:	Ruciane-Nida Commune is an urban-rural municipality located in Pisz County, Warmian-Masurian Voivodeship. The tourist and recreational commune is located in the area of the Masurian Plain, the Land of the Great Masurian Lakes and the Mragowo Lake District, in the heart of the Pisz Forest. Most of the municipality's area is occupied by forests (about 75%) and waters (about 10%). Power in the municipality is held by the mayor of the town and municipality. At the moment he is Piotr Ryszard Feliński. Ruciane-Nida borders the municipality of Mikołajki (Mragowo County) to the north, the municipality of Pisz to the east and south, and the municipalities to the west: Piecki (Mragowo County), Świętajno and Rozogi (Summit County). The location of the Ruciane-Nida municipality, surrounded by lakes and the Pisz Forest, makes it one of the most beautiful places in Warmia and Mazury. Ruciane-Nida municipality is the smallest municipality in Pisz County and covers 35.7 thousand hectares, which is more than 20% of its area. In terms of area, the town of Ruciane-Nida is the largest town in the district. It consists of two parts that used to form separate towns: Ruciane and Nida. There is a forest complex between the settlements, and the two parts of the town are connected by a two-kilometer road called Aleja Wczasów. The Ruciane-Nida municipality consists of 18 villages.
Project experience: (participation in projects)	Ruciane-Nida Municipality has independently implemented a number of projects of investment and non-investment nature, subsidized from the budget of the European Union within the framework of: Regional Operational Program of Warmia and Mazury, Rural Development Program, RYBY Operational Program, Fisheries and Sea Operational Program. In addition, Ruciane-Nida Municipality played the role of Lead Beneficiary in a partnership project implemented under the European Neighborhood
